Directive 2012-13

TO: REALTOR BOARDS AND PARTICIPATING LENDERS

SUBJECT: INVITATION TO ATTEND A LENDER/REALTOR IN-HOUSE WORKSHOP

The purpose of this Directive is to invite you to a Lender/Realtor In-House Workshop to be held on Wednesday, May 16, 2012 from 9:00a.m. - noon in the first floor main conference room of our office located at 100 Community Place, Crownsville, Maryland, hosted by the Maryland Community Development Administration (CDA) and US Bank.

This workshop has been approved to provide CE credit for 3.0 elective hours for real estate licensees. Attendees will be able to stay up-to-date with the Maryland Mortgage Program and hear from CDA and US Bank staff about new developments and more importantly, how you can successfully utilize the Maryland Mortgage Program for your customers. CDA and US Bank staff will be available to answer your questions. This will also give realtors and lenders an opportunity to network with each other as well as with CDA and US Bank staff. Please extend this invitation to all your staff/board members. The agenda for the workshop is:

- Review of the Maryland Mortgage Program
- Eligibility Guidelines
- Compliance Underwriting Guidelines
- Closing Cost Assistance Programs
- Lender Online Loan Reservation System
- Master Servicer Information

If you are interested in attending the Lender/Realtor In-House Workshop, e-registration is required. Please RSVP, by e-mail, to:

Catherine Howard at howard@mdhousing.org with the following information:

- your name;
- company name and address
- phone number; and
- the date of the training you are registering for.

On the day of the workshop, please be prepared to show a photo ID when you enter the building.
